

Big Blue Divers, Rasdhoo, Maldives Fundiving Rasdhoo Island (private room)

The diving

Dangling like a string of pearls below the Indian subcontinent, the Maldives has always been the epitome of tropical island holidays. With no mainland within hundreds of miles, the crystal clear waters of the Indian Ocean is a divers paradise. What sets the Maldives apart from other destinations is the teeming abundance of marine life. Due to the strict sustainable fishing policies, the ecosystems are intact and the reefs are healthy.

The location of our dive center on Rasdhoo is within easy reach of the most legendary of the dive sites in The Maldives! We invite you to go diving where beautiful Hammerheads, Manta Rays and all kinds of sea creatures gives the impression of an undersea rush hour. And with the numbers of divers per site being much lower than elsewhere, many of these fabulous creatures are as curious about the divers as the divers are about them!

For that reason, We LOVE the Maldives!

Big Blue Divers, Rasdhoo, Maldives Fundiving Rasdhoo Island (private room)

Location

Rasdhoo is a fine little atoll 32 miles west of the capital Male. Consisting of only four islands and a deserted sandbank, the numbers of visitors to this atoll is charmingly low, and Rasdhoo Island still enjoys a largely undiscovered status. Staying on a local inhabited island provides a very different, very REAL Maldivian experience, where the locals are eager to welcome explorers. Rasdhoo has a population of 1200, and is very proud to have a post office and even an ATM.

Your resort

Madivaru Kro is a guesthouse in Rasdhoo on the main street. It has a cozy shared lounge area, and a lovely terrace for relaxation. Guests can enjoy an on-site barbecue if they wish, as well as room service. Free Wi-Fi is also available. Bikini Beach is just a short walk away.

Your Room

All rooms at the guesthouse include a wardrobe, air conditioning, and a safe box. Each room has a private bathroom with a bidet, free toiletries, and a hairdryer. There are six rooms in total—four rooms are quadruple and two of them are double room.

This is only a selection of the many dive sites represented on this particular destination. The diving is dictated by the safeness of the environment.

Madivaru Corner

A few minutes by boat from Rasdhoo lies the uninhabited island of Madivaru, home to Madivaru corner, Madivaru channel and the famous Hammerhead Point dive sites. Madivaru corner is rated as a 5-star site, boasting superb overhangs and a dizzying array of large species such as Grey reef sharks, white tips, eagle rays, napoleon wrasse, schools of barracuda, giant trevallies to name but a few. On occasion mantas and dolphins are seen here, to add to an already dazzling display. With visibility seldom less than 20m and often exceeding 40m, this site never disappoints!

Manta Point

Inside the North Channel, in the manta season (from November to April) there is a good chance of seeing mantas on this dive. A big coral block in 14 metres, with a top at 10m is an attraction for many species of fish. Best is to sit next to the block when mantas are around and watch them circle.

Rasdhoo Channel

Another great dive site for the experienced divers with Deep Dive Training or Advanced level because of the negative entry and the depth. All thilas (submerged pinnacle) are already well-colonised on the atoll drop-off edge at the depth between 20-25m between Kuramathi and Rasdhoo Island. On the sandy bottom between the thilas, look for sting rays or white tip reef sharks. While crossing the channel, almost anything is possible like grey reef sharks, eagle rays, napoleon wrasses and many more.
